A Desirable Residence Madeleine Wickham

A Desirable Residence was originally published in 1996, the second novel by Wickham (AKA Sophie Kinsella). It's easy to see why Wickham's novels have bloomed over the years into the successful Shopaholic series under the Kinsella moniker; as this particular novel really reads more like a debut or starter.

A Desirable Residence is the second book I ever wrote. I've always been quite obsessed with property and in A Desirable Residence the house is almost the main character. The story is of three families all linked by the house - there's the family moving out, the family moving in, and the estate agent who did the deal.
