PERFECT PEOPLE, a stand-alone novel from well-known crime writer Peter James, is actually less of a crime novel, and more a work of science fiction. The main theme of the story is 'designer' babies, with all the bad genes taken out and quite a few of the good ones 'enhanced'. Not something that can be done in the real world.

Review - Perfect People by Peter James - Euro Crime

Peter James is acknowledged as being one of the top thriller writers in the UK, and his series of crime novels featuring DI Roy Grace are the best of the current genre. But in his new novel PERFECT PEOPLE he has proved he can depart from the formula and break the mould.
